

If behaving doesn't give you eternal life how does doing good things fit into God's plan? Go to simplybelief.com/grow to find out.

So, receiving the gift of everlasting life is not about trying to make yourself better, turning from sin and doing good works. It's not about behaving in Jesus. Rather, the only way to receive the gift of everlasting life is to believe in Jesus Christ for that life. Once a person does, they are not condemned anymore. They have, now and forever, everlasting life. This is good news!

Believe!

DO YOU
BEHAVE?
Believe?

Jesus did not say, "...whoever lives and behaves in Me..." He said that He is the resurrection and the life. Therefore, anyone who believes in Him, though they may die physically, they shall live physically, that is, be resurrected. And, anyone who believes in Him shall never die spiritually because they have, now and forever, everlasting life.

Believe!

Believe!

The above are only some of the things that the Bible calls sin. Sin is missing the mark of God's holy standard. The result of sin is death or separation from God. This is bad news! How can we have everlasting life, and be with God forever? Do we have to turn from our sins and start doing good works?

- Drunkenness
- Guluttony (over eating)
- Lying
- Homosexuality

Let us look at another passage.
-John 11:25-27, NKJV
Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live. And whoever believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?" She said to Him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who is to come into the world."

Believe!

Let us see what the Bible says.

Jesus said to Nicodemus, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved. He who believes in Him is not condemned; but he who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." ~John 3:16-18, NKJV

God the Father loves you, and has loved everyone in the following way. He gave His only Son, Jesus Christ, who died on the cross and paid the penalty for all sin for all time so that anyone who believes in Him may have everlasting life. Jesus did not say, "...whoever behaves in Him..." Instead, He said, "...whoever believes in Him..."

Believe!

Believe!